Railroad Fare To Be Refunded

To All Out-of-Town Customers In Addition to Special Values During This Big Trade Week

For seven days, commencing Saturday, June 10, and ending Saturday, June 17, the people of this section of Vermont will be given the greatest opportunity of their lives to lay in a supply of all kinds of seasonable merchandise at prices which cannot be surpassed or even duplicated in any town or city in all New England. The occasion is to be known as "Shop in Barre Week" or The Times' Big Co-operative Fare-Refunding Sale, and you can rest assured it will prove to be everything the name can possibly imply.

Practically every merchant in the city has made special preparations in the way of goods and prices for this sale, and those in need of anything from a dishpan to a complete outfit for a home, or from a pair of hose to a complete clothing outfit, shoes and all, should avail themselves of this opportunity to lay in a supply of merchandise at the very lowest possible prices.

Not only are the merchants offering special bargains for this big trade week, but in addition to this they will refund the fares of all out-of-town customers who buy anything to speak of at all. So it can readily be seen that it will be a great opportunity for the people of this section of the state to save money on anything they may need for some time to come.

Reason For Big Trade Week

Many may wonder why the merchants of Barre have united in a movement of this kind, but the reason is simple when explained. The idea was first suggested and, it might be said, promoted by The Times. Each and every merchant was requested to make some special inducements in the way of goods and prices for one week, commencing Saturday, June 10, and ending Saturday, June 17, and at the same time agree to pay their proportion of the fares of all out-of-town customers on these days. The plan met the approval of practically every leading merchant in Barre, and as a result it will mean the biggest trading opportunity ever known in the state of Vermont.

Come on Saturday, the first day of the sale, and then go back home and tell your friends and neighbors of the many bargains and great advantages offered for trading in Barre during The Times' Big Co-operative Fare-Refunding Sale.

Now is surely the time to do your trading. Read the announcements and look over the bargains offered by the merchants in this section of The Times.

Great Opportunity For Consumer

As Result of Co-operative Plan Being Worked Out On a Large Scale
By The Times

Sometimes real opportunities come the way of the ultimate consumer, and one of these times for the people of this section of the state will be during The Times' Big Co-operative Fare-Refunding Sale and Trade Week, when the merchants of Barre will offer special values in every line of merchandise.

By the plan as formerly announced in The Times, over thirty of the leading merchants of the city are offering special inducements in the way of goods and prices to the buying public. It has, of course, created more or less competition among the merchants, but this is all the better for those who have to buy, as it will mean genuine values in every line of merchandise. Prices in many instances are much lower than have ever been made anywhere on standard brands of staple and seasonable goods.

Besides the many special bargains to be offered by the merchants, railroad fares will be refunded to all out-of-town customers during this big co-operative sale. Under the plan, shoppers may distribute their patronage among as many stores as they desire, and then, coming to The Times' office, will be presented with the cash total of their fare from their home to Barre and return. The only condition to receiving the return of the railroad fare is that the aggregate purchases reach a certain small total, which will, of course, vary according to the number of miles traveled.

The big sale is an innovation for the city of Barre and is being promoted and arranged by The Times in order to advertise Barre as the best trading point in the state.

How to Get Your Fare Back

Persons coming to Barre from any of the above places to trade during this co-operative sale will get their fares refunded, providing their total purchases amount to the specified sums in the above schedule.

Fare-refund slips will be furnished all merchants who have agreed to pay their portion of the fares of out-of-town customers during this sale, and in order to have your fare refunded you should obtain one of these slips of the first merchant from whom you make a purchase. The slip will contain a list of all the merchants who are participating in the big sale, with blank space for each to put down the amount of your purchase. This slip is retained by you, and afterwards presented at each store at which you buy anything during the day, and then, before you leave for home, the slip is taken to The Times office, where your fare will be refunded in cash, providing your purchases during the day amount to the sum required according to the above schedule.

By this method, it will be readily seen that you will not have to buy everything from one store; but, on the contrary, you can patronize as many different stores as you like, and if your purchases amount to the required sum your fare will be refunded by presenting the slip at The Times office any time before leaving for home.

Come By Auto, Team or Rail

Fares will be refunded to all persons who come from a distance equal to any of the towns in the above schedule, whether by auto, team or rail. This will include farmers, as well as persons living in towns. The price of a railroad ticket to and from any of these places will be refunded to all persons, whether farmers or townspeople, who drive to Barre during this big sale, just as though they came on the railroad. For instance, a person residing in Plainfield, or a farmer who lives nearer that place than any other town from which fares are to be refunded, who drives to Barre to trade during the sale, will get the price of a railroad ticket, providing his purchases amount to the required sum.

Amounts equivalent to railroad fares, according to the distance, will also be refunded to all persons coming from or near any inland towns above, the same as if located on the railroads. Come by team or rail and get your fare back, or an amount equal to it. Read the schedule carefully and don't forget to ask the first merchant from whom you make a purchase for a refund slip, so you can keep account of your purchases.
